BetWarrior is a next-generation digital gaming company with a bold mission: to redefine the way people experience sports betting and casino entertainment across Latin America.

With a dynamic and diverse team, deep market insights, and cutting-edge technology, we're creating an experience that is personalized, responsible, and always player-first.

Great people, bold ideas, and a sharp focus on user experience set us apart

We operate in a highly competitive industry - innovation, speed, and execution are critical to our success. We're now entering a phase of accelerated growth and are looking to professionalize our delivery function. That's where you come in.

We're looking for an Affiliate Marketing Manager.

In this role, you'll:

- Responsible for performance in the Affiliate Marketing channel.
- Lead monthly budget allocation, forecasting, and reporting on KPIs by GEO, ensuring ROI optimization and reports on key KPIs in GEOs.
- Ensure that all affiliate material is up-to-date, such as campaigns, bonus offers, and links, and that affiliate websites are promoting BetWarrior in an appropriate and compatible manner.
- Oversee the day-to-day management of our affiliate platform (MyAffiliates), ensuring accurate tracking, reporting, and partner setup.
- Serve as the main liaison for key affiliates, ensuring consistent communication and collaboration.
- Manage current affiliate partners and recruit new partners in all GEOs.
- Oversee implementation and testing of affiliate tracking setups in collaboration with tech/BI teams.
- Collaborate with our design team to deliver landing pages and other creative assets for our long-tail partners.
- Ensure affiliate campaigns complement central lifecycle and retention strategies.
- Run the affiliate channel performance analysis using different attribution models and optimize the channel accordingly.
- Work closely with BI, CRM, and Finance to align affiliate strategy with broader acquisition goals.
- Deliver weekly and monthly affiliate performance reports, including traffic, FTDs, deposits, and ROI by GEO and partner.
- Prepare finance reconciliation reports (commissions, invoices, payments) in coordination with the Finance team.
- Monitor and assess affiliate traffic quality on an ongoing basis, identifying patterns of incentivized, low-retention, or fraudulent traffic and taking corrective action in coordination with BI and Finance teams.

We're looking for someone who brings:

- Results-driven professional with a strong ownership mindset, capable of building and scaling the affiliate channel with a clear focus on FTD growth and ROI.
- 5+ years of experience in affiliate marketing within the igaming industry, with a proven track record of growing affiliate channels and delivering measurable acquisition results.
- Experience with reports, especially knowledge of Power BI and/or Data Studio.
- Solid analytical and self-sufficient skills. Being proactive is a must!
- Team player, able to work with multiple business units and stakeholders to achieve goals.
- Ability to work and adapt quickly to changes.
- Advanced English proficiency, written and spoken.
- Strong negotiation skills with a proven track record of securing competitive deals with affiliate partners.
- An established network of affiliate contacts in gaming, betting, or fintech.

Bonus points if you also have:

- Using planning tools (Jira – Asana – Trello), agile experience will be an advantage.
- Spanish proficiency is a plus.
- Academic training in Digital Marketing and Mobile Marketing, is a plus.
- Good understanding of the gambling industry.
- Customer-centric mindset; think and act with the customer in mind.
- Previous experience with affiliate platforms (NetRefer, MyAffiliates, Income Access, or similar).
- Familiarity with compliance and regulatory requirements in Brazil or other regulated markets.

We expect every team member to live our values:
